Dear P Swift

Freedom of Information Request: FOI2024/03343

Thank you for your email of 2 April 2024, in which you ask to be provided information held about the/your:

1. agreement for the sharing of
 - a. the UK's PNC LoS (VRM) records with other countries
 - b. other countries sharing information with the UK
2. policy/procedure when notified a vehicle stolen in the UK has been recovered abroad
3. policy/procedure to be adopted by the country recovering/possessing the vehicle. Should this not be a general (all encompassing, all country but individual to each) policy, I ask to be provided the arrangement insofar as it pertains to Lithuania
4. any UK Interpol office contact, phone number and email for liaison about LoS vehicles located abroad.

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

We have carried out a thorough search and we have established that the Home Office does not hold the information which you have requested.

Given the subject matter of your request, INTERPOL may hold the information you are seeking. If you have not already done so, you may wish to write to them. Contact details can be found on their website at <https://www.interpol.int/>.

In relation specifically to point three, and the policy/procedure of another country, you will need to address this request to the specific country, in this case Lithuania.

If you are dissatisfied with this response you may request an independent internal review of our handling of your request by submitting a complaint within two months to foirequests@homeoffice.gov.uk, quoting reference FOI2024/03343. If you ask for an internal review, it would be helpful if you could say why you are dissatisfied with the response.

As part of any internal review the Department's handling of your information request would be reassessed by staff who were not involved in providing you with this response. If you were to remain dissatisfied after an internal review, you would have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner as established by section 50 of the FOIA.

A link to the Home Office Information Rights Privacy Notice can be found in the following link. This explains how we process your personal information: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/information-rights-privacy-notice>

Yours sincerely,

International Law Enforcement Cooperation Unit
